Dear Christian Men,

Around 50% of married Christian men experience divorce, often with the Bride initiating the separation. Many men find themselves at a loss, unsure of how to navigate the complexities of lifelong commitment. For those seeking lasting marriages, I offer the following advice:

1. God's Creative Design: When God formed each person, He declared them "very good-perfection." This includes your Bride—the woman you desire to marry. Imagine God's delight as He created her. However, over time, corrosion and confusion may creep into marriages. Many husbands feel ill-equipped to understand their wives. No one handed them a manual. The knowledge about the Bride seems to have been lost between Christ's time and today. Even Sigmund Freud, a renowned psychologist, admitted bafflement when it came to women. So, which group will you belong to?
2. Two Groups of Husbands:
  - The Informed Group: These husbands understand their Brides. They seek knowledge, invest in understanding, and cherish the one they marry.
  - The Corrosive, Confused Group: These husbands struggle to comprehend their Brides. Lack of understanding leads to frustration and distance. Consider the impact on your children. Will they witness a marriage marked by understanding and love or one clouded by confusion? Your example matters.
  - Seeking Wisdom: If you find yourself saying, "I don't understand her," it's not your fault. Seek wisdom. Read and reflect on these books:
  - "How To Pick Your Bride and How to Keep Her for Life- Best News for Adult Christian Males"
  - "How To Pick Your Bride and How to Keep Her for Life- Hard Moments Journal"
  - "Her Heart- Letter to Christian Men: Understanding Your Bride's Heart"

Meditate on these biblical insights. Transform from a clueless, possibly corrosive, confused partner to a Christlike, informed Groom.

May your marriage reflect the love and grace of Christ.

Blessings,
